

Gainsborough Library cafe volunteer

The library service has used volunteers for many years but recently the new independent and community model has increased the opportunity for volunteers to become involved in many aspects of the library service and the local community. Every library now has its own community or 'Friends' group which include members of the community giving up their time on a voluntary basis to support their local library.

Supporting Gainsborough Library and its community through the 'Voices4Gainsborough' group, volunteers help run the Library café.

Commitment:

The level of commitment for this role varies but we would require a minimum commitment of 4 hours, half a day over a 1-week period.

Attend training in order to keep up to date with health and safety and food hygiene standards
